

ART DESIGN

Oana believes that your portraits are worthy of utmost attention to reach their maximum artistic potential. To this end, all images you will see from your session are carefully polished to Oana's artistic standards.

Post-processing and design included in the session price:

- selecting the absolute best imagery for your viewing
- cropping as needed
- color conversion for specific vintage, saturated or monochrome effects based on what Oana believes to be the best look for each image
- detailed retouching to remove stray hairs, blemishes, drool spots; skin smoothing.
- one prototyped gallery from your session, to be viewed at the ordering session
- a gallery of storyboard and wall art grouping styles to choose from if desired
- custom book design (if ordered) to accommodate 32-64 images, and your choice of white or colorful pages
- custom book cover design (if ordered)
- decor and design advice at the in-person ordering session, by request
- customizing your choice of final ordered gallery pieces with your imagery
- one round of revisions if applicable, by phone or email
- frame choice advice from Oana's premium frame corners selection

Additional design services are available at a per-30 minutes minimum cost of $25 and can include additional revisions to the storyboards, book cover or book pages, as well as specific retouching not already included in the images presented at the ordering session.
